SUNDAY – 14 MAY 2017 HILLCOURT HOTEL & CONFERENCE
ROSE HILL, REDNAL, BIRMINGHAM B45 8RS

Speaker: Marek Kordasiewicz

Venue: Hillscourt Hotel is set in 25 acres of beautiful grounds, within the vicinity of the Lickey Hills. There is plenty of parking at the hotel. Lunch is held in the restaurant in the hotel itself. The meeting room is at the back of the hotel, disabled access to the meeting room is via a slope and a lift up to the room.

Meeting & Speaker: Marek Kordasiewicz - “Mysteries of Milliefiori from 19th century East European Glassworks”.

Born in Poland Marek has been an avid collector of antiques, glass and paperweights for over 25 years. He was the founder and owner of the Museum of Paperweights in Szkarska Poreba, Poland -quite a few PCC members attended the opening ceremony of this museum in the mountains as part of the really enjoyable trip Marek arranged for us to Prague and Poland in September 2004. The museum has now been moved to a new location and will be reopening again soon with its own glassmaking studio, and paperweight maker. Marek is also the author of a number of articles and the book “Glass Paperweights. The Heritage of the 19th Century Riesengebirge and Isergebirge Glassworks”. He is still researching and publishing his results, as well as giving talks to the PCA and of course the PCC. In addition to his day job and young family, Marek has taken up a new passion for wine and has recently established a vineyard in lower Silesia.
