BOOKS.

'Glass At Central'. Hildegard Pax. This book brings together the recollections and achievements of students in the glass department at the Central Saint Martins College of Art And Design, London during the 25 years prior to the closure of the course in 2011, after 115 years of continuous activity. Caroline Swash (Leader of the Postgraduate course in Glass, Fine Art & Architecture) and Hildegard Pax (Architectural Glass Tutor) decided that this moment should be commemorated. The book is a tribute to all the students and a record of the considerable achievements of so many alumni and tutors from 'Central' in the world of glass art. It presents the rich and varied work in glass by over 110 alumni in highly illustrated entries on 204 pages. ISBN: 0-9541055-4-0. The book can be purchased for £20.00 plus p&p. For further information, please Email: glassatcentralbook@gmail.com Website: <http://centralsaintmartinsglassalumni.wordpress.com>

'Classified: 25 Years With Contemporary Glass'. A 25th Anniversary of Ebeltoft Glasmuseet Book. The book has been published as part of the 25th Anniversary celebrations for the museum which also includes their current glass collection exhibition, 'Glass Mads', staged by Danish Sculptor, Bjørn Nørgaard (until 5th October). The 168 page fully illustrated book, authored by Niels Houkjær, tells the story of Studio Glass and the early experiments with the one man furnaces in the 60's to the manifold of contemporary glass. The book also includes an in depth description of the Glasmuseet's history and activities over the 25 years. It also contains a discussion of contemporary glass between five prominent Danish Glass Artists. Texts are in Danish and English. The book can be purchased from the museum at DKK250.00. For further information, please contact the Executive Director, Dagmar Bredndstrup on Tel: 00 45 86 34 17 99 Email: dab@glasmuseet.dk or Head of P.R. & Communications, Pia Strandbygaard Bittner on Tel: 00 45 86 34 17 99 and Email: pia@glasmuseet.dk . The Visual Artist and Craft Maker Awards Scheme: Forth Valley, in partnership with Creative Scotland grants of £500-£1,500 to individuals to support their creative and professional development. The Awards are intended to provide artists and makers living and working in the Falkirk, Stirling and Clackmannan area with support towards the costs involved in researching and creating new work. Priority will be given to proposals that clearly demonstrate an ongoing commitment to the development of a visual arts/craft practice; how the award will advance the artist's/craft maker's current practice; and the quality of the artist's/craft maker's work. Applications would be considered for, though the scheme is not limited to:

- Research/ development.
- Preparation of an exhibition/installation/performance art work within or outwith your local area.
- Attendance at an exhibition, conference or training course.
- Purchase of equipment will be considered if it is integral to the new development.

Who can apply?

- The scheme is open to visual artists and craft makers who live in, or whose practice is based in, the Forth Valley area. The term visual artist and craft maker includes though is not exclusive to practitioners working in painting, sculpture, printmaking, digital arts, installation, performance art, public art, textiles, fashion, ceramics, jewellery, carving.
- Applicants may be of any age and at any stage of their career but they must be outwith full time education.

NEWS.

*At the annual Royal Ulster Academy Exhibition for 2011, I delighted to learn that Sean Campbell won the 'Robinson McIlwaine Architects Original Vision Prize'. This is the 130th annual mixed media exhibition, held at the Ulster Museum in Belfast and runs until later in November. Many congratulations to Sean! Website: www.royalulsteracademy.org/annual-exhibition/annual-exhibition-2011/prize-winners/

*In an email recently received from Joe Szabo he writes, 'Dear Alan, I am very pleased to tell you that I won the third prize at this year's Baines Surrey Artist of the Year exhibition at the New Ashgate Gallery in Farnham. Twelve artists were shortlisted to take part in the final event of Surrey Artists Open Studios 2011. Glass art was represented by Jane Bohane and myself. The public and a panel of selected expert judges voted for their favourite exhibitor. The winning artist is Stuart Stanley, a painter, while the second prize went to Linda Walsh, a textile artist. I am glad that contemporary glass art did so well in this year's competition. I was wondering if you could include this piece of news in your November newsletter. I'm hoping that glass artists working further afield would feel pleased to hear about a fellow artist's achievement in the south of the country. Many thanks, kind regards, Joe Szabo. Mob: 07929 794 011. Website: www.leadedline.com '. Many congratulations Joe!
